trict Attorney Darrin, some of Annis's friends in the Bayside Yacht Club insist that Annis received letters from Capt. Hains of a threatening nature. One letter, received two weeks before the tragedy, it is alleged, warned Annis that he would be shot on sight by either Capt, Hains or T. Jenkins Hains In answer to this letter, it is claimed Annis wrote to Capt. Hains announcing his intention of calling unarmed at the home of T. Jenkins Hains in Bay Ridge and did so call, but the Hainses were
